Perpetuity Leases:

$350 per grave, $700 per 2 graves, $1400 for a full plot.

Two urns can be buried in one grave-site. A lease can not be sold or transferred to another private party, but must be returned to the parish for resale.

Arrangements:

All arrangements must be handled through a funeral home, who will work in conjunction with pastor.

Grave Opening Fees:

A Full grave is $300,

An Urn is $150 and must be made of solid material like granite or enclosed in such a container.

Cremation:

Per Catholic Church teaching: A Memorial Mass or Funeral Mass with Cremated Remains, or other Christian service can be offered if the loved one is cremated prior to a Christian service.

Permission from the pastor is required for cremated remains to be in the church for a service.

Remains must not be separated, can not be kept in a private home, and must be interred in a timely manner. Remains will not be allowed in the parish church if kept for any period at a private home. A Funeral Mass can only be offered before cremation, with the body of the loved one present.
